

Certificated Teacher Focused Summative Scoring Document

Criterion 4: Danielson Framework (2022)

The purpose of this document is to capture the progress over the course of the year and to facilitate a growth-focused conversation.

Teacher: _____	Grade Level(s): _____	Date: _____
Evaluator: _____	District/School: _____	School Year: _____
Comprehensive Evaluation Score*: _____	From School Year: _____

*The final focus summative rating will be the same as the Comprehensive score unless it is a 3 and evidence during this evaluation period indicates a level 4 practice.

Criterion 4: Providing clear and intentional focus on subject matter content and curriculum

	Unsatisfactory	Basic	Proficient	Distinguished
1a: Demonstrating Knowledge of Content and Pedagogy	The teacher lacks sufficient knowledge of content and pedagogy to support student learning of the content.	The teacher’s understanding of content and pedagogy partially supports student learning of the content.	The teacher’s understanding of content and pedagogy supports student learning of the content.	The teacher’s understanding of content and pedagogy fosters deeper learning, student agency, and intellectual dispositions such as curiosity, reasoning, and reflection.

	Unsatisfactory	Basic	Proficient	Distinguished
1c: Setting Instructional Outcomes	Instructional outcomes are not identified, are not rigorous, or are inappropriate.	Instructional outcomes are moderately rigorous and are appropriate for most students in the class.	Instructional outcomes are rigorous and appropriate for students.	Instructional outcomes represent high-level learning of important content and support student autonomy, curiosity and intellectual risk-taking.
1d: Demonstrating Knowledge of Resources	The teacher is not aware of, or does not appropriately or effectively use, instructional materials and other resources to support student learning and development.	The teacher understands and uses instructional materials and other resources to support student learning and development, but these resources represent only a narrow band of what is available.	The teacher's knowledge of instructional materials and other resources leads to discerning choices to support student learning and development.	The teacher makes deliberate decisions in the use of instructional materials and other resources to meet individual student needs and support student autonomy and intellectual engagement.
1e: Designing Coherent Instruction	The design of learning experiences does not support student engagement with important content.	Learning experiences are somewhat coherent in structure, within and across lessons, partially supporting students to meet the intended outcomes.	Learning experiences are challenging and engaging; they are designed to meet the needs of students in the class.	Learning experiences prioritize the needs of individual students, ensure all students can meet the intended outcomes, and support student assumption of responsibility for learning.
3.1: Establish Student Growth Goals	The teacher does not develop a student growth goal for a group of students within a class who are not yet reaching full learning potential.	The teacher develops a student growth goal for a group of students within a class who are not yet reaching full learning potential.	The teacher develops a student growth goal for a group of students, within a class, who are not yet reaching full learning potential.	The teacher develops a student growth goal for a group of students, within a class, who are not yet reaching full learning potential.

Reflective Questions:

As we look toward next year, do you feel that your practice would be enhanced by continuing with this criterion? Or, might it be time to consider further developing your skills with a different criterion?

Given your response to the previous question, what supports can I, as your evaluator, provide for you to maximize your growth next year?

Both signatures required. Signing of this instrument acknowledges participation in but not necessarily concurrence with the evaluation. (Attach teacher comments if desired.)
