

PATTERSON BUCHANAN
FOBES & LEITCH, INC., P.S.

Charles Leitch is a Founding Principal of Patterson Buchanan Fobes Leitch & Kalzer, Inc., P.S., a regional law firm with offices in Seattle and Portland. His active practice focuses on representation of School Districts and Public Entities. In addition, Mr. Leitch provides guidance, trainings and orientations on technology supervision, social networking, cyberbullying, and exploitation prevention nationally and internationally, including specific presentation formats for teenagers, parents, law enforcement, and school personnel. He is a member of multiple work groups and advisory boards regionally and nationally on technology supervision and best practices. Prior to his civil practice, Mr. Leitch served as a prosecutor on the County and City level. He is a graduate of Whitman College and Willamette University College of Law.