Comprehensive School Counseling Plan

Ridgefield Comprehensive School Counseling Plan

Washington state has clearly identified the significant role school counseling holds in the success of our students. Ridgefield School District has been working with counselors, administration, and other staff in developing a strong comprehensive program. We believe that ALL students should be provided with a safe, inclusive and supportive environment that nurtures the well-being of the whole child.

By working towards strengthening our comprehensive school counseling plan, our counselors strive to work towards ensuring our students develop the knowledge, attitudes, and skills necessary to become competent and confident learners, with an emphasis on meeting children's needs through prevention, early identification, and intervention. Research has demonstrated that strong programs identify support systems, such as Multi-Tier System of Supports (MTSS), that strengthen students in the areas of academics, career readiness, and social-emotional development.

The Ridgefield School District provides guidelines within this packet to collaboratively work towards a comprehensive program in order to strive to deliver the most premiere counseling services to students, parents/guardians, and the community. This is a draft document and highlights our vision, updated and revised based on the needs of our students and community.

Introduction

Ridgefield School District School Counselors design and deliver school counseling programs that improve student outcomes. Our district is utilizing pieces recommended by the American School Counselors Association (ASCA) to help guide in the development of our Comprehensive School Counseling Plan. The Comprehensive School Counseling Plan serves as an organizational, ongoing tool to identify, prioritize, and evaluate the elements of a high quality school counseling program and align with the requirements of Washington State Senate Bill 5030.

The School Counselor Role

Collaboration

Ridgefield School District believes in the benefit of collective efficacy. With the unified understanding that through collective action, we can positively impact the whole-child. Our programs collaborate within the building, community, district, and include, but not limited to:

- | | |
|---|---|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Administrators ● BCBA Specialist ● Community Agencies: Real Life; SeaMar; Family Solutions ● Community Members ● Connection Center Mentors ● District SEL Assistant Director & McKinney-Vento/Foster Care Liaison ● District Special Services Director ● Family Resource Center Coordinator ● Guardians | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Mental Health Treatment Centers ● Occupational Therapists ● Physical Therapists ● Police Departments ● School Counselors ● School Nurses ● School Psychologists ● School Resource Officers ● Speech/Language Pathologists ● Teachers/Staff |
|---|---|

Ridgefield School District employs staff mentors that work closely with school administration, counselors, and teachers to provide tiered services to students within the building. These mentors work in the Connection Center at each school, and are utilized as preventative and reflective supports for our students. They provide support at each tier such as, but not limited to: check in check out; soft landing; lunch buddies; restorative practice conversations; individualized student breaks; push-in support; mentoring; small groups; PBIS team; MTSS team. Counselors and mentors are expected to collaborate frequently.

Our Vision

To be developed

Guiding Conversation:

- Describes the future world (5-15 years in the future) where best possible student outcomes are achieved
- Aligns with school vision statement or includes an explanation regarding the lack of alignment

Our Mission

To be developed

Guiding Conversation:

- Describes school counseling program's overarching focus or purpose as described in the ASCA National Model
- Emphasizes equity, access and success for every student
- Emphasizes long-range results for every student

Our Unified Beliefs

CORE BELIEFS

Every student can learn,
and every student can succeed.

ALL students should have equitable access to the school counseling program.

Every student should graduate high school prepared for life skills and increase knowledge for postsecondary (college, trade school, etc.)
opportunities.

School counselors are leaders to students success in the school, district, and community.

School counselors hold ethical guidelines and seek to improve our practice through professional development.

Effective school counseling
is a collaborative process involving school counselors,
students, families,
teachers, administrators,
other school staff and educational stakeholders.

School counselor programs remove barriers to promote and enhance student academic, career,
and social/emotional outcomes.

Component Two

Program Management

School Counseling Program Evaluation

The primary purposes of the School Counseling Program Evaluation is to not only ensure the “school counselor’s effectiveness, impact, high-level performance and continued professional growth” (Dimmitt, 2009) but also to “demonstrate school counselors’ effectiveness and impact on student success as a part of the mission of their respective schools” (ASCA 2019a).

Beginning of School Year

The School Data Summary guides the school counselor in determining goals for their individual building based on data gathered from their site. This information is then used during their district-wide Our Program Goals discussion, as well as in their Annual Administrative Conference.

K-12 Tool to be used beginning the 22-23 SY:
School Data Summary

Closing-the-Gap Action Plan guides the school counselors in determining goals to support district-wide collaboration and support. These can be similar to their building specific goals created in the Annual Administrative Conference form, however, the focus is on collaboration to align the counseling programs throughout the district in order to help close the achievement gap and remove barriers in either academics, career, and/or social emotional learning.

K-12 Tool to be used beginning the 23-24 SY:
Closing-the-Gap Action Plan

The Annual Administrative Conference is a guiding form to help build discussion and awareness around the school counseling program for the individual site. This form is collaboratively completed between the counselor(s) and their building administrator(s) at the beginning of every school year.

It is not a binding document, instead, a tool to help identify program focus and needs for the year.

On-Going Throughout School Year

|--|---|
| A Use-of-Time calculator is utilized two times a year by each school counselor to document and help determine how much time is currently spent on school counseling activities versus non-school counseling activities. ASCA states that school counselors need to spend at least 80% of their time in direct and indirect services with students, and no more than 20% of their time on program planning and other duties. | K-12 Tool to be used beginning the 22-23 SY: Use of Time |
| School counselors are key team leaders on their building's PBIS teams. Positive Behavioral Interventions and Supports (PBIS) is a best-practice approach adopted in K-8 buildings that promotes school safety and good behavior. The focus of PBIS is prevention, not punishment. Utilizing a Tiered Fidelity Assessment during the school year allows counselor teams to identify what tiered systems from PBIS are running effectively, and what areas are needing growth. The Assistant Director of SEL will take lead in completing the Tiered Fidelity Inventory at each site, after collaboration for implementing the inventory, for PBIS teams to analyze. | K-8 Tool Resource: SWPBIS Tiered Fidelity Inventory Individual PBIS teams can adapt the survey & system to fit their unique needs |
| Ridgefield School District is working to provide counselor social-emotional learning (SEL) services within the Multi-Tier System of Support model. Within this model, our counselors are active participants in providing preventative structures to enhance student social and emotional outcomes. Counselor teams at each building are expected to work together to share equal caseloads and duties, in order to provide an equitable program. At the end of small-group services, counselor teams utilize ASCA's Classroom and Small Group Results Report to identify whether students achieved growth. This tool is utilized to identify areas of professional growth or systemic needs, not as a punitive measurement. Counselors utilize research-based practices to service their identified small intervention groups and monitor student growth through pre, post, and progress monitoring data: Elementary: Counselors at this level participate in their buildings What I Need (WIN) small groups. The purpose of this tool is to support deep, intentional thinking about how the comprehensive school counseling program is planned, delivered, evaluated, and improved to support high-priority, site-and district-aligned student outcomes. This tool has been developed to support all school counseling practitioners in implementing CSCPs. Calendars

Annual calendars are developed, implemented, and shared with stakeholders. Calendars are aligned with the program goals, vision, mission, and the planned use of time. Calendars should include the completion of Component Two documents within this guide.

The calendar does not include all tasks the school counselor engages in, instead, it will provide a brief overview of key pieces the counselor team(s) would like to highlight within the month such as, but not limited to:

providing professional development to staff; personal professional development; general education whole-group lesson focus (i.e. bullying prevention, suicide prevention); meetings; holiday/building events; food drives; community outreach; data systems; transcripts; FAFSA/career nights; Meet & Greet; district-wide collaboration meetings; Use of Time data collection; and more!

District Level: Need to schedule with counselors Use of Time district-wide agreement, district-wide mental health collaboration 2 hrs 4 times a year meetings, and Career-vertical alignment planning, Bully Prevention lessons (K-8), SOS lessons (6-8)

| Individual and Small Group Counseling Data: Progress Monitoring Questions for Curriculum | Data is reviewed to determine student needs. Interventions are based on the identified gaps in the school and student needs. Data is tracked to ensure skills taught are developed. Groups align to the district's MTSS Handbook guide. Examples: Counselor groups - social thinking, growth mindset, emotion regulation, self-awareness, self-management, social-awareness, mindfulness, executive functioning, divorce, family changes, grief and loss, cognitive behavior adapted groups, and anxiety groups. Only some groups are offered per What I Need round, 4 days x 30minutes/week for 2 sessions per grade, and new groups can be developed depending on student identified needs. |
| Core Curriculum Lessons | Lessons are developmentally appropriate, based on ASCA Behaviors and Mindsets. Core lessons of Second Step are taught in the general education setting in order to support all students' needs. Other lessons are developed through the counselor, PBIS Team, and/or Assistant Director of Social Emotional Learning to enhance tier 1 delivery from the general education teacher during scheduled SEL instruction blocked times. |

| Orientation/Transition Programs | To be discussed |
| Academic Advisement/Student Goal Setting | The counselor promotes understanding of the relationship between classroom performance and success and may provide interpretation of assessment results to develop academic goals. |
| Social/Emotional | Counselors provide students with opportunities to develop skills in the area of personal growth (problem solving skills, mindfulness, and perseverance), personal understanding (self-awareness, strengths and weaknesses, critical thinking skills), interactions with others (appropriate treatment of others, building communication skills, how to seek assistance &/or offering help to others when needed), decision-making skills (considering personal beliefs, safety & situations, our actions have consequences, putting your best foot forward), and empathy (seeing others' perspectives, valuing others' feelings, appreciating diversity). Examples: school wide initiatives, individual and group counseling sessions, modeling, core curriculum lessons |
| Bullying Prevention & Responsive Services | Annual bullying prevention is co-taught with staff for students to assist in recognizing and responding to bullying situations. Students are taught to recognize and access a trusted adult in classroom guidance lessons and through individual counseling. Examples: school wide initiatives, individual and group counseling, classroom Second Step lessons, school-wide assemblies, ongoing dialogue with teachers, administrators, and guardians |
| Suicide Prevention & Responsive Services | Counselors provide developmentally-appropriate classroom guidance lessons to promote positive self-concept and value. Counselors are trained in suicide prevention strategies. Counselors communicate with families and refer to outside counseling agencies for higher-level continuation of care. Ridgefield school counselors have developed staff training that is provided to staff annually around the warning signs of suicide and ways to support students needs. Examples: Individual counseling, crisis intervention, outside service referrals, guardian contact |

|--|---|
| Career Planning | Grade level appropriate activities are provided for career planning and exploration through guidance lessons, career education programs, and career days. Currently, students in the 4th grade level are working towards career planning skill sets. As the years continue, more grades will be added in this area to strengthen the program and students hope for their future. See Career Planning section below. |
| Accelerated Learning Opportunities | Counselors collaborate with guardians, teachers, administrators, and other school officials to ensure students are placed in appropriate accelerated learning settings. Students in grade 1 through 8 receive classroom instruction through the Gifted program. Students are screened for eligibility for the Gifted program in K-7 grade(s). |
| Guardian Partnership | School counselors create, support, and maintain relationships with families, supporting agencies, and community members to ensure that all stakeholders are provided with appropriate representation in decisions made within the school. In addition, results of programs are regularly shared with stakeholders through the school improvement plan. Counselors work closely with guardians to ensure access to community resources. Examples: academic placement meetings, meetings with counselors regarding testing information and results, tours of the building, parenting tips & suggestions, new student orientation, back to school activities, volunteer opportunities, family interventions and support, Parent Teacher Association |

Career Planning

K-12 Vertical Alignment

School counselors provide a multi-tiered program to all students and grade levels that may include, but is not limited to: classroom counseling lessons, online tools, guest speakers, engagement with community partners, and special career-related activities. Students develop real-world skills for success, which may include self-regulation, problem-solving, social awareness, and communication skills.

Career programs are established based on:

Component Five

District Transition Support Plan

Transition Plan Components

SSB 5030, requiring the development of Comprehensive School Counseling Program Plans, specifies that a transition plan be created and adopted by the school board, with implementation beginning during the 2022–23 school year. Ridgefield School District values and supports the work of our school counselors and strives to provide relative steps to help strengthen our programs. In order to ensure transitional compliance, the Assistant Director of Social Emotional Learning will complete the District Self-Assessment & Template annually, and share the results with counselors, building and district level administration, and other relevant stakeholders. The district will also align monthly school counselor CSCP meetings to the program goals: agenda

Section 1: Use of Standards

Our comprehensive school counseling program uses WA state and ASCA frameworks that are systemically aligned to the WA state learning standards. These standards are highlighted at the beginning of this handbook.

|---|--|
| Desired State of Expectations/ Structures | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Building level school improvement plans include aspects of comprehensive school counseling program data and goals ● Building level administrators will be aware of the goals, needs, and areas of focus for the school counseling program at their site ● District-level goals already incorporate language similar to the comprehensive school counseling program vision: whole-child, premier, collaboration, inclusive, safe, nurture, supportive, partnerships, removing barriers, close the disparity gap |
| Transition Action Plan | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Building administrators will be provided training around the adoption of WA state and ASCA frameworks and how they align with the school counseling program ● Counselors will be provided with ASCA templates to help guide and align their program to the standards ● Counselors will be provided time to develop their goals for their site that align with WA state standards and ASCA framework |

|--|---|
| | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Counselors will advocate and hold a meeting at the beginning of the school year to highlight their program needs and areas of focus for the year with their building administrators |
| Partners Involved | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● School counselors ● Building-level administrators ● District-level school counseling supervisors |
| Timeline toward full Implementation | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● June 2022: The district informed building administrators of their upcoming changes to the school counseling program to align with WA state standards and the ASCA Framework ● June 2022: Counselors will have access to ASCA templates provided through Google Docs for ease of use. ● By August 2022: The district will train administrators around the new comprehensive school counseling plan and the expectation of incorporating the program within building focus goals ● By 2023-2024 School Year: The district will organize a system for storing previous templates developed throughout the year to ensure compliance towards the program |
| Section 2: Use of Data The comprehensive school counseling program provides a process for identifying student needs through a multilevel school data review and analysis of the use-of-time data, program results data, and data regarding communication with administrators and other stakeholders. Refer to Component Two of this handbook to highlight areas of data within the program and our sites Calendars to help guide compliance and awareness around the program. | |
| Desired State of Expectations/ Structures | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● School counselors will be fluent in gathering data relevant to their program, to help determine goals and supports for their site. ● Building administrators will set out time to discuss the data of the counseling program with their counselors. ● Counselors will be provided district-wide analysis of their data to provide comprehensive discussions relevant to improving our program. ● District-level administration will be provided with the school building data to help analyze district-level support towards the counseling program |
| Transition Action Plan | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Counselors will be provided with support by district-level administrator in completing the data sections for compliance towards implementation ● Counselors will be provided training in the Use of Time data collection system ● Data will be shared with school site relevant teams and building administrators ● Program individual site data will be shared out to stakeholders |

Ridgefield School District Counselors collaborate annually to review and update the Comprehensive School Counseling Plan. All members of the Ridgefield School District are given the opportunity to provide input and work collaboratively with their peers throughout the process. The Comprehensive School Counseling Plan ensures that services are coordinated in a manner that provides comprehensive support to all students. Services within Component Three of this packet contains direct and indirect services that the district strives to provide. The services are worked towards, collaboratively, and are in different stages of development. This document was created through input from Rogers Public Schools comprehensive program.*
