

Template for Student Growth Goal Development

Use the template below, along with the Student Growth Goal Rubrics, to aid in developing your student growth goals. Remember, this should be used to support a conversation with your evaluator.

Prompts for thinking...	Notes and initial ideas
Through experiences with my class and from interest surveys, family interactions, etc., I have learned that...	(Discuss what was learned from experiences, surveys, etc.)
Many of my students prefer learning through or by...	(Discuss what was learned from the methods you've been using to learn about your students)
Students in my class will be working on Essential Standard(s) ___ which will be supported by (social/emotional, habit of mind, supportive practice) ...	(Name the critical standard that will drive the focus of instruction – this academic/content goal should include a social-emotional component or habit of mind or math practice, etc.)
All students in my class will have an opportunity to be successful with this standard through...	(Name strategies or scaffolds)
I will monitor progress by...	(Name formative and summative assessments)
Opportunities for student voice and feedback on student experience of the learning will be provided through...	(Name strategies)
I will know learning has occurred because...	(What does it look like and sound like)

