PURPOSE/BACKGROUND

The 2024 Washington State Legislative Session concluded on March 7, and the Legislature passed about 100 bills and budget provisos impacting K–12 education. Part of the role of the Office of Superintendent of Public Instruction (OSPI) is to support school districts by closely tracking policy proposals and implementing new legislative requirements, including supporting implementation at the local level.

As such, OSPI has compiled and published a summary of new K-12 bills and budget items that have been signed into law by Governor Jay Inslee. OSPI has also compiled a list of requirements for school districts that are either new as a result of legislation passed this legislative session, or requirements from previous legislative sessions that are going into effect this school year or next.
