Student-Teacher Contact Requirements

While not physically present, student-teacher contact is required, we placed a high value on personal connections with students. Students must complete regular discussion-based assessments, each with a graded point value, with his/her instructor three times each semester. The teacher is also required to uphold the following contact requirements: welcome email to students and parents/guardians and a welcome phone call. Minimum weekly live lessons, frequent phone calls to students and families, frequent course announcements, and more.
