

National Board Writing Webinars

Register Today!

Who: Any National Board candidate working toward National Board Certification in 2025-2026

What: These one-hour webinars are designed to support writing for the National Board portfolio. Candidates should expect to examine their own writing and work with peers on the selected topic. These sessions DO NOT replace cohorts nor conditional loan requirements.

When: Fall-Spring, always Tuesdays, 4:30 PM-5:30 PM (choose Series A, B, or both!)

Series A (Fall-Winter) REGISTER HERE!

- Sept 16: Writing about Contextual Information
- Sept 30: Writing about Instructional Context
- Oct 7: Forms & Written Commentary
- Oct 21: Identifying and Writing about Goals
- Oct 28: Using Evidence in Written Commentary
- Nov 4: Integrating National Board Standards
- Nov 18: Writing Tips: Convincing, Clear, Consistent

Series B (Winter-Spring) REGISTER HERE!

- Jan 6: Writing about Contextual Information
- Jan 20: Writing about Instructional Context
- Feb 3: Forms & Written Commentary
- Feb 24: Identifying and Writing about Goals
- March 10: Using Evidence in Written Commentary
- March 17: Integrating National Board Standards
- April 7: Writing Tips: Convincing, Clear, Consistent

Where: Zoom – Register above and select the sessions you’d like to attend. You will need an account with <https://zoom.us/> and an electronic device to join. A Zoom link will follow in an email after completing the registration survey. Each session per series uses the same Zoom.

RSVP is required – registration will close day-of event. Contact OSPI National Board Program Specialist, Steven Mueller, at Steven.Mueller@k12.wa.us for any questions.

Washington Office of Superintendent of PUBLIC INSTRUCTION