Human Services Career Cluster/Pathways

The Human Services Career Cluster prepares you for jobs that relate to families and human needs. Whether you want to be a social worker, a childcare provider or a hairdresser, you will be addressing human needs.

This career cluster is organized into seven career pathways:

- Consumer services
- Counseling and mental health services
- Early childhood development and services
- Family and community services
- Personal care services

Note: The other two pathways are Culinary Arts, and Arts, A/V Technology and Communications.

Careers

Students in human services learn and practice skills that prepare them for diverse post-high school education and training opportunities, from apprenticeships and two-year college programs to four-year college and graduate programs.

CTE classes in this cluster will introduce you to a variety of interesting careers including:

- Childcare Worker
- Child, Family or School Social Worker
- Director Of Childcare Facility
- Preschool Teacher
- Parent Educator
- School Counselor
- Sociologist
- Social Services Worker
- Personal or Home Care Aide
- Leisure Activities Counselor
- Recreation Worker
- Consumer Credit Counselor
- Personal Financial Advisor
- Consumer Goods or Services Retailing Representative or Buyer
- Cosmetologist, Hairdresser or Hairstylist

Note: Each school and school district has different CTE options. Not every district has classes in every cluster, nor does every district offer CTE dual credit and Advanced Placement options.

Career and Technical Student Organizations

Career and Technical Student Organizations (CTSOs) are much more than clubs. CTSOs provide opportunities to apply hands-on learning, leadership and personal skills in real-world environments. Participants build their skills by developing projects, attending events, and competing regionally and nationally among their peers.

The student organization for human services is Washington Family, Career and Community Leaders of America (FCCLA).

Education After High School

It is fact that young people who have at least one year of post-high school education earn thousands of dollars more a year. So, if you spend even one year at a two- or four-year college, in a certificate program at a technical school, or in an apprenticeship after you graduate from high school, you will very likely earn higher wages all your life. By furthering your education, you will be better-prepared to successfully navigate the world of work.

After taking CTE classes in human services, you could pursue any number of opportunities including:

- Employment in retail and human service-related jobs
- A two-year degree in human services, substance abuse counseling, career counseling, early childhood education, culinary arts or community services
- A four-year college or graduate degree in social services, sociology, teaching or psychology

Student Resources

Middle and High School

For information about your district's CTE offerings and how to move forward with planning for your future, contact or visit:

- Your school career or guidance counselor
- Your principal or school district Career and Technical Education office
- Navigation 101: A life skills and planning program for students in grades 6 through 12 to help them make clear, creative plans for their education and training in high school and beyond

Apprenticeship and College

More than 1,000 jobs in Washington are connected to an active, registered apprenticeship program. For more information about apprenticeships and colleges, visit:

- How to become an apprentice: Five steps to getting started
- Washington Career Bridge
- Washington State Board for Community and Technical Colleges

Additional Resources

- About Consumer Services Washington
- Social and Human Service Assistants Social and human service assistants help social workers, healthcare workers and other professionals. Titles include human service worker, case management aide, social work assistant, community support worker, mental health aide, community outreach worker, life skills counselor and gerontology aide.
- U.S. Department of Health and Human Services U.S. government's role in human service work, information on career options in national government
- Washington Association for the Education of Young Children
- Washington State Department of Social and Health Services Career information and employment opportunities in Washington
- Check out county and city government websites, as well. Each has its own governmental structure and employment opportunities in human services.

For Educators

- C:\node\22772 Resources and Essentials
- Comprehensive CIP Code Chart

CIP Codes

Classification of Instructional Programs (CIP) Codes assist in tracking, assessment, and reporting CTE courses.

- 120401
- 190000
- 190001
- 190002
- 190401
- 190403
- 190701
- 190703
- 190704
- 190706
- 190707
- 190708
- 190710
- 190716
- 190726
- 198888