Overview

With twenty-five years of experience, K12 (Stride, Inc.) is a Cognia-accredited leader in online curriculum, instructional technology, and online learning services for K–12 students. We partner with Washington school districts to deliver a rigorous, standards-aligned education that meets the diverse needs of learners. Our learning model combines high-quality curriculum and tools with research-based instructional practices, offering options for both physical and digital learning materials that provide a seamless blend of engaging online and offline learning experiences.

K12's extensive catalog includes core academic subjects, Career and Technical Education (CTE) pathways, world languages, and a wide range of electives. Students also have access to enrichment, collaboration, and peer connection through online clubs and interest-based communities that foster engagement and a sense of belonging. In SY2024–25, K12 supported over 123,000 student enrollments across more than 350 courses available to Washington schools.

K12's state approval encompasses both K12-instructed online courses and full online school programs, ensuring students statewide benefit from a rigorous, personalized, and accessible educational experience that prepares them for long-term academic and personal success.
