

Washington OER Hub Introduction and Highlights

Free educational materials aligned to Washington learning standards

What to expect

- Explore the Washington OER Hub with guided, hands-on support.
- Learn search strategies to find standards-aligned resources for your students.
- See how to save, adapt, and share materials across grade levels and content areas.

Who should attend

This session is designed for classroom teachers, instructional coaches, librarians, administrators, and family or community members who support student learning.

What are OER?

Open Educational Resources (OER) are free teaching and learning materials that educators can use, adapt, and share to meet local needs.

Questions about using the Washington OER Hub? For support getting started or locating resources, please contact:

Barbara Soots

Assistant Director, Open Education
& Instructional Materials

barbara.soots@k12.wa.us

Looking for engaging, standards-aligned lessons and units created by and curated for Washington educators?

The Washington OER Hub is your go-to online library for PreK–12 teaching and learning resources—all at no cost!

Webinar Registration

One clock hour provided for Washington educators.

October webinar dates are repeats of the same session; please choose one.

Wednesday, September 30

3:30 pm – 4:30 pm

Focus on Early Learning Resources

Register on pdEnroller

Thursday, October 8

3:30 pm – 4:30 pm

Register on pdEnroller

Tuesday, October 13

3:30 pm – 4:30 pm

Register on pdEnroller

Friday, October 23

12:00 pm – 1:00 pm

Register on pdEnroller

