

Non-Violence Leadership Training Annual Status Report FY 2017

1. Purpose: The purpose of the Institute for Community Leadership contract is to provide trainings to school staff and students on non-violence curriculum.
2. Description of services provided: The Institute conducted statewide leadership and non-violence programs via coordination of student exchanges, trainings, and speaking opportunities for students.

Districts and schools worked with the Institute to implement non-violence curriculum, and the Institute provided training on this curriculum to teachers and workshops for students. Participants participated in classes provided in their schools, as well as the Institute's campus. These student participants participated in nonviolence student exchanges, provided trainings to other students, and participated in speaking events. The Institute developed school-based leadership teams in three districts that perpetuated nonviolence education in their outreach to the districts' educators. Student participants developed public speaking abilities through class presentations and in public venues with diverse audiences presented speeches, original writings, and original poetry. The Institute conducted weekend, school break, and summer programming for students from Kent School District which focused on democracy education, public speaking, and advanced leadership classes.

The Institute provided the following:

- a. Presented Nonviolence Leadership Workshop, 10 to 16 hours in duration to 8 schools, representing 3 school districts (Kent, Seattle, and Auburn);
- b. Conducted 4 speaking events;
- c. Conducted 3 student leadership exchanges and trainings; and conduct weekend, school break, and summer programming at the ICL Education Center and in cultural leadership exchanges (Kent, Auburn, and Taholah).
- d. Conducted weekend, school break, and summer programming in cultural leadership exchanges.
- e. Conducted outreach, recruitment, and development of school-based leadership teams that perpetuate nonviolence education and training in conjunction with the Institute for Community Leadership curriculum and programming in three (3) districts (Kent, Auburn, Federal Way).
