

Polluting Tribal Sovereignty

Across

2. Dams on the River made it cheap.
4. The effect of the Hanford Nuclear Reservation on salmon in the River.
5. The Hanford Nuclear Reservation affected this aspect of local tribes most.
6. Site chosen for a Nuclear Reservation by the federal government in 1943.
8. "Usual and accustomed places" is used to describe traditional hunting & _____ grounds of local Indian tribes.
9. Poured into the Columbia River for a decade.
10. The Project of "Hanford" scientists.
12. The river that provided water to cool nuclear reactors.
13. An area of land where a local tribe still maintain their usual and accustomed rights.

Down

1. Limits the ability of tribal governments to protect their people & land.
3. The population of Hanford in the 1940's.
7. Received by a tribal member after swimming in the River.
8. The thousands of people living in Hanford by 1944.
11. The place of the first atomic explosion.

ANSWER KEY

1. Pollution
2. Electricity
3. Three-hundred
4. Deformities
5. Sovereignty
6. Hanford
7. Rash
8. Fifty-one
9. Radium
10. Manhattan
11. Nagasaki
12. Columbia
13. Ceded