MICHAEL MOULTON
AGREED ORDER OF SUSPENSION

3. On September 21, 2001, the Office of Professional Practices, within OSPI, received a complaint letter from the superintendent of the Morton School District alleging a lack of good moral character or personal fitness, or a violation of the Code of Professional Conduct, Washington Administrative Code (WAC) 181-87, by Michael Moulton; OPP No. D01-10-094.

4. On or about May 22, 1997, Mr. Moulton: asked students to rub or scratch his back; had students sing songs with students' names in a derogatory manner; used dictionary work as punishment; had students write essays as punishment; and threatened students with additional essays. He was issued a Written Reprimand on May 30, 1997.

5. On June 21, 1999, Mr. Moulton received a Letter of Summary of Discussion About Complaint from Dick Lutz, Superintendent of Morton School District, in response to a complaint by two female high school students that Mr. Moulton called them inappropriate nicknames and touched them on the back, shoulders, arm, and waist. In the letter, Mr. Lutz states "It is my belief that you did not behave prudently or use reasonable judgment as follows: You did not treat students age appropriately. The high school age students were embarrassed when called names and told how much you love them. You encroached upon their personal space by touching them. The high school students also got mixed messages when you demonstrated this behavior". Mr. Moulton was directed, as an educator, to treat everyone equitably and above reproach.

6. On August 19, 2001, Mr. Moulton did not preview a story that involved mention of intercourse and genitalia. Mr. Moulton allowed the story to be read to elementary school age students. On August 27, 2001, Mr. Moulton was suspended without pay for five days by Russ Davis, Superintendent of Morton School District.

7. On September 21, 2001, the Office of Professional Practices (OPP) initiated an investigation into allegations of a lack of good moral character or personal fitness, or a violation of the Code of Professional Conduct, Washington Administrative Code (WAC) 181-87; OPP No. D01-10-094.

8. On May 9, 2002, OPP issued an Agreed Order of Reprimand to Michael Moulton; OPP No. D01-10-094. The Findings of Fact in the Agreed Order of Reprimand address the reading of a story on April 19, 2001.

9. During the 2004-2005 school year, Mr. Moulton inappropriately touched students by; rubbing girls' shoulders, backs and arms; hugging a girl from behind; touching/grabbing a girl's side; patting a girl's shoulder; rubbing both boys' and girls' shoulders; putting his hands on girls' shoulders; touching girls' waists; putting his hand/s onto a girl's hand and interlocking fingers; poking girls' sides, between their waist and ribs; pulling a girl's hair; putting his arm around a girl with his hand on her shoulder; and slapping the back of a boy's head.

16. On January 16, 2006, Attorney William C. Boehm sent a letter to Morton Police Chief Dan Mortensen advising him that there would be no charges filed against Michael Moulton for Morton Police Case No. 05D988. Mr. Boehm cited, “His touching of students in a tickling fashion or rubbing their shoulders certainly is inappropriate but I do not feel that it would fit in any of the categories of assault. In reviewing the reports none of the students felt harmed or were they injured by his touching. I feel it would be very hard for the City to prove beyond a reasonable doubt that Mr. Moulton had criminal intent when he touched a student”.

17. On March 8, 2006, Mr. Moulton received a Deferred Prosecution in Lewis County District Court; Lewis County District Court Case #C8294.

18. On April, 6, 2007, Michael Moulton participated in an interview with an OPP investigator.
