INTRODUCTION

After receiving and investigating a complaint from Sultan, Washington School District regarding the above referenced educator, and based upon the facts available as of the date of this Agreed Order, the Superintendent of Public Instruction, through his undersigned designee, does hereby stipulate, by and between the Office of Superintendent of Public Instruction (OSPI), the Office of Professional Practices and Carri Priestly, that the Washington Education Certificate No. 366695E, of Carri Priestly, shall be suspended based on the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law set forth below:

I. FINDINGS OF FACT

1. On January 7, 1999, Carri Priestley, hereafter referred to as Ms. Priestley, was issued Washington Education Certificate, No. 366695E. That certificate currently remains valid.
2. OPP maintains that during the first half of the 2012-2013 school year, Ms. Priestley, an elementary school special education teacher, failed to report to the appropriate authorities various disclosures made by a 13 year old female middle school student, C.C. Ms. Priestly maintains, in part, that she reported such disclosures that were required to be reported and also was of the understanding that the former student was in counseling for such issues.

3. On or about November 20, 2012, David Paratore, Sultan School District Special Programs & School Support Executive Director, began an investigation into Ms. Priestley's communications and relationship with C.C. On November 20, 2012, Mr. Paratore had a discussion with Ms. Priestley, among other topics, about "boundary issues" with students. On multiple occasions, after November 22, 2012 Ms. Priestley continued conversations with C.C.

4. On February 11, 2013, Dan Chaplik, Sultan School District Superintendent, issued Ms. Priestley a letter of probable cause for termination. That notice was appealed and prior to the hearing the parties entered into a settlement agreement to resolve the matter.

5. On June 7, 2013, Ms. Priestley signed a Settlement Agreement with the Sultan School District. In the agreement, the District was to pay Ms. Priestley a sum of money and she was to resign her employment effective August 31, 2013.

6. OSPI maintains that in employment applications submitted to the Ellensburg School District, Yakima School District and Wapato School District, Ms. Priestley misrepresented, or failed to disclose, or both, the material information regarding the termination of her employment with the Sultan School District. Ms. Priestley maintains that she provided accurate information based on the application questions and consistent with the settlement agreement with the Sultan School District. Ms. Priestley also maintains that prospective employer school districts had, or had access to, her personnel file with the Sultan School District.

II. CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. Chapter 28A.410 RCW gives the Professional Educator Standards Board the authority to develop regulations determining eligibility for and certification of personnel employed in the common schools of the state of Washington. OSPI acts as the administrator of those statutes and regulations and has the authority to issue, suspend, and revoke education certificates. RCW 28A.410.010, .090. WAC 181-86 and WAC 181-87 further implement OPSI's authority.
2. OSPI has jurisdiction over Carri Priestley and the subject matter discussed herein.
3. Carri Priestley committed acts of unprofessional conduct by failing to report child abuse and neglect, by having inappropriate interactions with a student and by making material misrepresentations in connection with employment applications to other school districts. WAC 181-87-060; WAC 181-87-050
4. There is clear and convincing evidence that Carri Priestley committed unprofessional conduct. WAC 181-86-170.
5. Based on the foregoing, Carri Priestley's education certificate should be suspended for unprofessional conduct.
