

Eric Holmkvist

Rochester School District, ESD 113

Rochester High School

Email: eholmkvist@rochester.wednet.edu

Work phone: (360) 273-5534

Teaching Assignment:

U.S. History and APUSH instructor and Social Studies Department Chair at Rochester High School

Education:

2007 – Bachelor of Arts – Central Washington University – History Teaching, Minor in German Language

2011 – Endorsement Education Program – Central Washington University – English Language Arts

2017 – Master of Education – Western Governors University – Curriculum and Technology

Area of Expertise:

Secondary Social Studies Curriculum, Instruction and Assessment

Primary source document analysis

Technology and Instruction

Background:

2007-2015: Social Studies Teacher, ACES and Mariner High Schools, Mukilteo School District. Taught courses in Current World Issues, Civics, A.P. United States History, World History, Washington State History, and American Literature. Served on district curriculum adoption committees and development of alternative learning experiences. Developed and coordinated senior culminating project.

2015-Present: Social Studies Teacher, Rochester High School, Rochester School District. Taught courses in Current World Issues, Civics, World Geography, U.S. History and Humanities. Served on district curriculum alignment and assessment development. Served as freshmen class advisor. Warrior award recipient for outstanding service to the educational community in 2016.